TOYS FOR CHILDREN

A good friend of ours donated her children's toys for us to distribute to other needy children. Her children are now older and no longer using the toys which were still in excellent condition. Just as we received the toys, we also received an email from another friend who is setting up a "reading corner" at her house for children in the neighborhood to come and borrow books. This seemed like God's timing to connect these 2 events and we were able to be the mediator to facilitate these toys being used by those who really appreciate them. Besides toys we also gave them a box of shoes.
